

Blues miss three

ATHENIAN League, Premier Division outfit Southall visit Loakes Park tonight (Tuesday) for a friendly against Wycombe Wanderers.

Missing from the Wanderers line up will be two men on international duty. John Delaney and Larry Pritchard are both in line for a place in the England Amateur team who meet Finland at Plymouth tomorrow night (Wednesday).

Another player out is Alan Gane who was scheduled for a trial with Hereford United of the Fourth Division last night (Monday). Alan was meant to play for them on Saturday but was substitute at Bishop's Stortford instead.

One of the main interests in tonight's match will be to see the class of Southall, who are one of the many Athenians forming Division Two of the Isthmian League next term. At present they are seventh in the table but their best performances have been in cup competitions.
